DENTAL SPECIALTY PLACEMENT WRITTEN REPORT RUBRIC - DH 304

Megan Walbauer, Gurdev Sahi, Dema Al-Nakeeb, Jaipreet Singh Grade	DENTAL SI ECIALITI LACEVIENT WRITTEN REFORT RUBRIC - L	11 304	1	1
Name of the dental specialty office and the person interviewed? (2) 6 6	Maria Kurba Alakhras, Gurleen Dhaliwal, Kelly Venecia, Zaid Saoor,
1. Name of the dental specialty office and the person interviewed? (2) 2. Definition of the dental specialty. (2) 3. What kind of clients does this specialty deal with? (2) KNOWLEDGE: 1. Explain the educational requirements of the assigned dental specialist (level of education/number of years of school). (2)2 2. Discuss whether this type of specialty requires any special license or membership with specific associations? (2)1 3. Explain the legal requirements for record keeping when the dental hygienist is consulting and referring to this type of specialist? (4)2 ROLES: 1. Does the specialist work alongside any other healthcare professionals? (2)2 2. List the scope of practice for both the dentist within this field and dental hygienists. (2)1 3. What are the roles of the dental hygienist in this type of practice environment, if any? (Compare and contrast the dental hygienist's role with the specialist's role. If applicable, compare and contrast the role of dental hygienist working in the specially office to a traditional practice.) (4)2 4. Explain the dental hygienist's working relationship with the dental specialist? (2)2 5. What does a typical work day look like? (2)2 6. How do you feel the patient and family is part of the circle of care? Please explain. (2)2 SKILLS: 1. What are the necessary skills needed for this profession? (2)2 2. Is there any technological devices used to provide care? (2) 2 3. How is information shared or communicated by the referring practitioner and the specialty office? What types of communication strategies are used within the specialty office? E.g. Team meetings, rounds, emails, phone, etc. (4) 2 MECHANICAL: Accurate use of punctuation, grammar, and spelling. Comments: Most questions answered well. A few questions lacking some information. Total: Total: 42 32 78. Value to Value to	Megan Walbauer, Gurdev Sahi, Dema Al-Nakeeb, Jaipreet Singh
2. Definition of the dental specialty. (2) 3. What kind of clients does this specialty deal with? (2) KNOWLEDGE: 1. Explain the educational requirements of the assigned dental specialist (level of education/number of years of school). (2)2 2. Discuss whether this type of specialty requires any special license or membership with specific associations? (2)1 3. Explain the legal requirements for record keeping when the dental hygienist is consulting and referring to this type of specialist? (4)2 ROLES: 1. Does the specialist work alongside any other healthcare professionals? (2)2 2. List the scope of practice for both the dentist within this field and dental hygienists. (2)1 3. What are the roles of the dental hygienist in this type of practice environment, if any? (Compare and contrast the dental hygienist's role with the specialist's role. If applicable, compare and contrast the role of dental hygienist working in the specialty office to a traditional practice.) (4)2 4. Explain the dental hygienist's working relationship with the dental specialist? (2)2 5. What does a typical work day look like? (2)2 6. How do you feel the patient and family is part of the circle of care? Please explain. (2)2 SKILLS: 1. What are the necessary skills needed for this profession? (2)2 2. Is there any technological devices used to provide care? (2) 2 3. How is information shared or communicated by the referring practitioner and the specialty office? What types of communication strategies are used within the specialty office? E.g. Team meetings, rounds, emails, phone, etc. (4) 2 MECHANICAL: Accurate use of punctuation, grammar, and spelling. Comments: Most questions answered well. A few questions lacking some information. Total: 42 33 78.5%
2. Definition of the dental specialty. (2) 3. What kind of clients does this specialty deal with? (2) KNOWLEDGE: 1. Explain the educational requirements of the assigned dental specialist (level of education/number of years of school). (2)2 2. Discuss whether this type of specialty requires any special license or membership with specific associations? (2)1 3. Explain the legal requirements for record keeping when the dental hygienist is consulting and referring to this type of specialist? (4)2 ROLES: 1. Does the specialist work alongside any other healthcare professionals? (2)2 2. List the scope of practice for both the dentist within this field and dental hygienists. (2)1 3. What are the roles of the dental hygienist in this type of practice environment, if any? (Compare and contrast the dental hygienist's role with the specialist's role. If applicable, compare and contrast the role of dental hygienist working in the specialty office to a traditional practice.) (4)2 4. Explain the dental hygienist's working relationship with the dental specialist? (2)2 5. What does a typical work day look like? (2)2 6. How do you feel the patient and family is part of the circle of care? Please explain. (2)2 SKILLS: 1. What are the necessary skills needed for this profession? (2)2 2. Is there any technological devices used to provide care? (2) 2 3. How is information shared or communicated by the referring practitioner and the specialty office? What types of communication strategies are used within the specialty office? E.g. Team meetings, rounds, emails, phone, etc. (4) 2 MECHANICAL: Accurate use of punctuation, grammar, and spelling. Comments: Most questions answered well. A few questions lacking some information. Total: 42 33 78.5% Value to			6	6
Explain the educational requirements of the assigned dental specialist (level of education/number of years of school). (2)2 2. Discuss whether this type of specialty requires any special license or membership with specific associations? (2)1 8 5	2. Definition of the dental specialty. (2)		U
1. Explain the educational requirements of the assigned dental specialist (level of education/number of years of school). (2)2 2. Discuss whether this type of specialty requires any special license or membership with specific associations? (2)1 3. Explain the legal requirements for record keeping when the dental hygienist is consulting and referring to this type of specialist? (4)2 ROLES: 1. Does the specialist work alongside any other healthcare professionals? (2)2 2. List the scope of practice for both the dentist within this field and dental hygienists. (2)1 3. What are the roles of the dental hygienist in this type of practice environment, if any? (Compare and contrast the dental hygienist's role with the specialist's role. If applicable, compare and contrast the role of dental hygienist working in the specialty office to a traditional practice.) (4)2 4. Explain the dental hygienist's working relationship with the dental specialist? (2)2 5. What does a typical work day look like? (2)2 6. How do you feel the patient and family is part of the circle of care? Please explain. (2)2 SKILLS: 1. What are the necessary skills needed for this profession? (2)2 2. Is there any technological devices used to provide care? (2) 2 3. How is information shared or communicated by the referring practitioner and the specialty office? What types of communication strategies are used within the specialty office? E.g. Team meetings, rounds, emails, phone, etc. (4) 2 MECHANICAL: Accurate use of punctuation, grammar, and spelling. Comments: Most questions answered well. A few questions lacking some information. Value to Value to	3. What kind of clients does this specialty deal with? (2)
2. Discuss whether this type of specialty requires any special license or membership with specific associations? (2)1 3. Explain the legal requirements for record keeping when the dental hygienist is consulting and referring to this type of specialist? (4)2 ROLES: 1. Does the specialist work alongside any other healthcare professionals? (2)2 2. List the scope of practice for both the dentist within this field and dental hygienists. (2)1 3. What are the roles of the dental hygienist in this type of practice environment, if any? (Compare and contrast the dental hygienist's role with the specialist's role. If applicable, compare and contrast the role of dental hygienist working in the specialty office to a traditional practice.) (4)2 4. Explain the dental hygienist's working relationship with the dental specialist? (2)2 5. What does a typical work day look like? (2)2 6. How do you feel the patient and family is part of the circle of care? Please explain. (2)2 SKILLS: 1. What are the necessary skills needed for this profession? (2)2 2. Is there any technological devices used to provide care? (2) 2 3. How is information shared or communicated by the referring practitioner and the specialty office? What types of communication strategies are used within the specialty office? E.g. Team meetings, rounds, emails, phone, etc. (4) 2 MECHANICAL: Accurate use of punctuation, grammar, and spelling. Comments: Most questions answered well. A few questions lacking some information. Total: Value to 15. Value to Value to Value to 15.	KNOWLEDGE:
3. Explain the legal requirements for record keeping when the dental hygienist is consulting and referring to this type of specialist? (4)2 ROLES: 1. Does the specialist work alongside any other healthcare professionals? (2)2 2. List the scope of practice for both the dentist within this field and dental hygienists. (2)1 3. What are the roles of the dental hygienist in this type of practice environment, if any? (Compare and contrast the dental hygienist's role with the specialist's role. If applicable, compare and contrast the role of dental hygienist working in the specialty office to a traditional practice.) (4)2 4. Explain the dental hygienist's work in grelationship with the dental specialist? (2)2 5. What does a typical work day look like? (2)2 6. How do you feel the patient and family is part of the circle of care? Please explain. (2)2 5. KILLS: 1. What are the necessary skills needed for this profession? (2)2 2. Is there any technological devices used to provide care? (2) 2 3. How is information shared or communicated by the referring practitioner and the specialty office? What types of communication strategies are used within the specialty office? E.g. Team meetings, rounds, emails, phone, etc. (4) 2 MECHANICAL: Accurate use of punctuation, grammar, and spelling. Comments: Most questions answered well. A few questions lacking some information. Total: Value to 15. Value to Value	1. Explain the educational requirements of the assigned dental specialist (level of education/number of years of school). (2)2
ROLES: 1. Does the specialist work alongside any other healthcare professionals? (2)2 2. List the scope of practice for both the dentist within this field and dental hygienists. (2)1 3. What are the roles of the dental hygienist in this type of practice environment, if any? (Compare and contrast the dental hygienist's role with the specialist's role. If applicable, compare and contrast the role of dental hygienist working in the specialty office to a traditional practice.) (4)2 4. Explain the dental hygienist's working relationship with the dental specialist? (2)2 5. What does a typical work day look like? (2)2 6. How do you feel the patient and family is part of the circle of care? Please explain. (2)2 SKILLS: 1. What are the necessary skills needed for this profession? (2)2 2. Is there any technological devices used to provide care? (2) 2 3. How is information shared or communicated by the referring practitioner and the specialty office? What types of communication strategies are used within the specialty office? E.g. Team meetings, rounds, emails, phone, etc. (4) 2 MECHANICAL: Accurate use of punctuation, grammar, and spelling. Comments: Most questions answered well. A few questions lacking some information. Total: 42 33 78.5% Value to	2. Discuss whether this type of specialty requires any special license or membership with specific associat	ons? (2)1	8	5
I. Does the specialist work alongside any other healthcare professionals? (2)2 2. List the scope of practice for both the dentist within this field and dental hygienists. (2)1 3. What are the roles of the dental hygienist in this type of practice environment, if any? (Compare and contrast the dental hygienist's role with the specialist's role. If applicable, compare and contrast the role of dental hygienist working in the specialty office to a traditional practice.) (4)2 4. Explain the dental hygienist's working relationship with the dental specialist? (2)2 5. What does a typical work day look like? (2)2 6. How do you feel the patient and family is part of the circle of care? Please explain. (2)2 SKILLS: 1. What are the necessary skills needed for this profession? (2)2 2. Is there any technological devices used to provide care? (2) 2 3. How is information shared or communicated by the referring practitioner and the specialty office? What types of communication strategies are used within the specialty office? E.g. Team meetings, rounds, emails, phone, etc. (4) 2 MECHANICAL: Accurate use of punctuation, grammar, and spelling. Comments: Most questions answered well. A few questions lacking some information. Total: 42 33 78.5% Value to	3. Explain the legal requirements for record keeping when the dental hygienist is consulting and referring to this type of
1. Does the specialist work alongside any other healthcare professionals? (2)2 2. List the scope of practice for both the dentist within this field and dental hygienists. (2)1 3. What are the roles of the dental hygienist in this type of practice environment, if any? (Compare and contrast the dental hygienist's role with the specialist's role. If applicable, compare and contrast the role of dental hygienist working in the specialty office to a traditional practice.) (4)2 4. Explain the dental hygienist's working relationship with the dental specialist? (2)2 5. What does a typical work day look like? (2)2 6. How do you feel the patient and family is part of the circle of care? Please explain. (2)2 SKILLS: 1. What are the necessary skills needed for this profession? (2)2 2. Is there any technological devices used to provide care? (2) 2 3. How is information shared or communicated by the referring practitioner and the specialty office? What types of communication strategies are used within the specialty office? E.g. Team meetings, rounds, emails, phone, etc. (4) 2 MECHANICAL: Accurate use of punctuation, grammar, and spelling. Comments: Most questions answered well. A few questions lacking some information. Total: 42 33 78.5% Value to	ROLES:
2. List the scope of practice for both the dentist within this field and dental hygienists. (2)1 3. What are the roles of the dental hygienist in this type of practice environment, if any? (Compare and contrast the dental hygienist's role with the specialist's role. If applicable, compare and contrast the role of dental hygienist working in the specialty office to a traditional practice.) (4)2 4. Explain the dental hygienist's working relationship with the dental specialist? (2)2 5. What does a typical work day look like? (2)2 6. How do you feel the patient and family is part of the circle of care? Please explain. (2)2 2. Is there any technological devices used to provide care? (2) 2 3. How is information shared or communicated by the referring practitioner and the specialty office? What types of communication strategies are used within the specialty office? E.g. Team meetings, rounds, emails, phone, etc. (4) 2 MECHANICAL: Accurate use of punctuation, grammar, and spelling. Comments: Most questions answered well. A few questions lacking some information. Total: 42 33 78.5% hygienist's role with the specialist's role. If applicable, compare and contrast the role of dental hygienist working in the specialty office to a traditional practice.) (4)2 4. Explain the dental hygienist's working relationship with the dental specialist? (2)2 5. What does a typical work day look like? (2)2 6. How do you feel the patient and family is part of the circle of care? Please explain. (2)2 SKILLS: 1. What are the necessary skills needed for this profession? (2)2 2. Is there any technological devices used to provide care? (2) 2 3. How is information shared or communicated by the referring practitioner and the specialty office? What types of communication strategies are used within the specialty office? E.g. Team meetings, rounds, emails, phone, etc. (4) 2 MECHANICAL: Accurate use of punctuation, grammar, and spelling. Comments: Most questions answered well. A few questions lacking some information. Total: 42 33 78.5% Value to 15 hygienist's role with the specialist's role. If applicable, compare and contrast the role of dental hygienist working in the specialty office to a traditional practice.) (4)2 4. Explain the dental hygienist's working relationship with the dental specialist? (2)2 5. What does a typical work day look like? (2)2 6. How do you feel the patient and family is part of the circle of care? Please explain. (2)2 SKILLS: 1. What are the necessary skills needed for this profession? (2)2 2. Is there any technological devices used to provide care? (2) 2 3. How is information shared or communicated by the referring practitioner and the specialty office? What types of communication strategies are used within the specialty office? E.g. Team meetings, rounds, emails, phone, etc. (4) 2 MECHANICAL: Accurate use of punctuation, grammar, and spelling. Comments: Most questions answered well. A few questions lacking some information. Total: 42 33 78.5% Value to 15
4. Explain the dental hygienist's working relationship with the dental specialist? (2)2 5. What does a typical work day look like? (2)2 6. How do you feel the patient and family is part of the circle of care? Please explain. (2)2 SKILLS: 1. What are the necessary skills needed for this profession? (2)2 2. Is there any technological devices used to provide care? (2) 2 3. How is information shared or communicated by the referring practitioner and the specialty office? What types of communication strategies are used within the specialty office? E.g. Team meetings, rounds, emails, phone, etc. (4) 2 MECHANICAL: Accurate use of punctuation, grammar, and spelling. Comments: Most questions answered well. A few questions lacking some information. Total: 42 33 78.5% Value to 15
4. Explain the dental hygienist's working relationship with the dental specialist? (2)2 5. What does a typical work day look like? (2)2 6. How do you feel the patient and family is part of the circle of care? Please explain. (2)2 SKILLS: 1. What are the necessary skills needed for this profession? (2)2 2. Is there any technological devices used to provide care? (2) 2 3. How is information shared or communicated by the referring practitioner and the specialty office? What types of communication strategies are used within the specialty office? E.g. Team meetings, rounds, emails, phone, etc. (4) 2 MECHANICAL: Accurate use of punctuation, grammar, and spelling. Comments: Most questions answered well. A few questions lacking some information. Total: 42 33 78.5% Value to 15	specialty office to a traditional practice.) (4)2
5. What does a typical work day look like? (2)2 6. How do you feel the patient and family is part of the circle of care? Please explain. (2)2 SKILLS: 1. What are the necessary skills needed for this profession? (2)2 2. Is there any technological devices used to provide care? (2) 2 3. How is information shared or communicated by the referring practitioner and the specialty office? What types of communication strategies are used within the specialty office? E.g. Team meetings, rounds, emails, phone, etc. (4) 2 MECHANICAL: Accurate use of punctuation, grammar, and spelling. Comments: Most questions answered well. A few questions lacking some information. Total: 42 33 78.5%
6. How do you feel the patient and family is part of the circle of care? Please explain. (2)2 SKILLS: 1. What are the necessary skills needed for this profession? (2)2 2. Is there any technological devices used to provide care? (2) 2 3. How is information shared or communicated by the referring practitioner and the specialty office? What types of communication strategies are used within the specialty office? E.g. Team meetings, rounds, emails, phone, etc. (4) 2 MECHANICAL: Accurate use of punctuation, grammar, and spelling. Comments: Most questions answered well. A few questions lacking some information. Total: 42 33 78.5% Value to	5. What does a typical work day look like? (2)2
SKILLS: 1. What are the necessary skills needed for this profession? (2)2 2. Is there any technological devices used to provide care? (2) 2 3. How is information shared or communicated by the referring practitioner and the specialty office? What types of communication strategies are used within the specialty office? E.g. Team meetings, rounds, emails, phone, etc. (4) 2 MECHANICAL: Accurate use of punctuation, grammar, and spelling. Comments: Most questions answered well. A few questions lacking some information. Total: 42 33 78.5% Value to Value to
2. Is there any technological devices used to provide care? (2) 2 3. How is information shared or communicated by the referring practitioner and the specialty office? What types of communication strategies are used within the specialty office? E.g. Team meetings, rounds, emails, phone, etc. (4) 2 MECHANICAL: Accurate use of punctuation, grammar, and spelling. Comments: Most questions answered well. A few questions lacking some information. Total: 42 33 78.5%	SKILLS:
2. Is there any technological devices used to provide care? (2) 2 3. How is information shared or communicated by the referring practitioner and the specialty office? What types of communication strategies are used within the specialty office? E.g. Team meetings, rounds, emails, phone, etc. (4) 2 MECHANICAL: Accurate use of punctuation, grammar, and spelling. Comments: Most questions answered well. A few questions lacking some information. Total: 42 33 78.5%
3. How is information shared or communicated by the referring practitioner and the specialty office? What types of communication strategies are used within the specialty office? E.g. Team meetings, rounds, emails, phone, etc. (4) 2 MECHANICAL: Accurate use of punctuation, grammar, and spelling. Comments: Most questions answered well. A few questions lacking some information. Total: 42 78.5% Value to	*	8	6 communication strategies are used within the specialty office? E.g. Team meetings, rounds, emails, phone, etc. (4) 2 MECHANICAL:	• MECHANICAL: Accurate use of punctuation, grammar, and spelling. Comments: Most questions answered well. A few questions lacking some information. Total: 42 33 78.5% Value to 15
Accurate use of punctuation, grammar, and spelling. Comments: Most questions answered well. A few questions lacking some information. Total: 42 33 78.5% Value to 15	1 1 1
Comments: Most questions answered well. A few questions lacking some information. Total: 42 33 78.5% Value to 15				5
Total: 42 33 78.5% Value to 15	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
Value to 15	Comments: Most questions answered well. A few questions lacking some information.
Value to 15		Total:	42	33
Value to 15				5 0 50 4
				78.5%
		Value 4e
Grade:			15
		Graae:			